

Final Match in Tennis Tournament to be Played this Saturday Afternoon

MESSRS. WILLIAMS AND WHITNEY
TO MEET MESSRS. GRUGAN AND NEWELL FOR CHAMPIONSHIP
HONORS—MESSRS. FOLLIN AND FOOTE WIN CON-SOLATION TITLE.

Aided, abetted, assisted and accelerated by the kind of perfect summer weather that is more frequently found out on the tip end of Cape Cod or in the vicinity of Portland (yes, my dear, travel is a great educator) than in these particular parts, the Fourth of July Tournament of the Narberth Tennis Association proved to be one of the most successful events of the kind ever held in our borough. This was particularly true with respect to the precision and speed with which the matches were run off. It was the first time that the Tournament Committee has tried rigid rules regarding the players being on the courts according to a definitely announced time schedule, and the plan worked so successfully that undoubtedly it will be followed in all future tournaments.

Final Match Today.

All matches in the regular tournament were completed up to the final contest, which will be played this Saturday afternoon between Messrs. Williams and Whitney and Messrs. Newell and Grugan. The consolation tournament was completed Monday afternoon and was won by Messrs. Follin and Foote against Messrs. J. Harris and W. W. Evans, who put up a game fight, but lost in three straight sets.

In the regular tournament the best match was the semi-final round between Messrs. Newell and Grugan and Messrs. Van Auker and McKell, which the former team won in two straight sets, 6-3, 6-4.

Miller Burkhardt's Death a Shock to the Community

ILL WITH PNEUMONIA ONLY ONE
WEEK—THE PASSING OF POPU-LAR MEMBER OF THE NAR-
BERTH TENNIS ASSOCIATION
GRIEVES HIS MANY FRIENDS AND ASSO-CIATES.

The death early last Tuesday morning of Miller Burkhardt, at his home at the southwest corner of Elmwood and Maple avenues, removed from our community one of its most popular and best beloved citizens. He was taken ill just one week earlier while in Newark, New Jersey, on one of his regular twice-a-week business trips to that place. He came home that evening and the following day developed pneumonia. Mr. Burkhardt is survived by his widow and one son, Walter, who is a Philadelphia lawyer. Although still interested in the firm of George J. Burkhardt & Sons, manufacturers of wood tanks—which concern was founded by his father and is today one of the oldest and best known business houses in Philadelphia—Mr. Burkhardt devoted most of his time to his insurance business at his office in the Drexel Building. He was also an active member of the Narberth Methodist Episcopal Church and the Narberth Tennis Association.

The funeral services were held Thursday evening at his late residence and the interment was made Friday morning at West Laurel Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Burkhardt, it may truthfully be said, had many estimable qualities, and not the least of these were his cheerful, youthful spirit, his love of good, clean, healthful sport, and his quiet way of taking newcomers in our town by the hand and making them feel genuinely at home in our community.

Years ago, when he was a young man, Mr. Burkhardt was very fond of baseball and played on the same team with the late Governor Robert E. Pattison. Later he became an enthusiastic bicyclist and participated in many of the "century runs" that were so popular back in the 90's.

Always interested in tennis, he resumed his active playing when he came to live in Narberth a few years ago, and from then on up to a week before his death he was one of the most active members of the Tennis Association, and probably the most ardent and enthusiastic player in the organization. In actual years, well on toward the allotted three score and ten, Mr. Burkhardt had always been doubly fortunate and happy in the possession of not only health and remarkable powers of endurance, but a youthful mind and outlook on life. On the local tennis courts his skill and staying powers, and his love of the game, often put the younger players to shame.

The nickname of "Ponce de Leon," given Mr. Burkhardt several years ago by one of his fellow players in a spirit of jesting—not, however, unmixed with sincere appreciation of his remarkable qualities—quickly came to bespeak the feeling of genuine affection which every member of the Association had for him.

There must be something in the air around Narberth that develops athletes. This year, when the Main Line League of semi-professional teams was not reorganized, their place in baseball was taken by a strictly amateur league.

No players are paid. Sport for sport's sake is their idea. The players are residents of restricted territories around Narberth, Ardmore, Bryn Mawr, Berwyn, Wayne and Paoli.

The gate receipts are used to pay for equipment and umpires' salaries, and every team should have a substantial balance at the end of the season, particularly the two teams winners of the halves who play off the championship.

A split season schedule is played, 10 games in the first half ending on July 4th, and 10 in the second half ending on Labor Day, the winners of each half playing off a championship series.

One game was dropped in the first half on account of rain on all of the grounds, which only left nine in the series, leaving an open date on July 10th.

Narberth started playing ball the first game and kept on winning every game until the morning of July 5th, when they defeated their nearest opponents, Berwyn, by a score of 7 to 5. Quincy Yowell pitched this game and struck out 13 batters. In the afternoon our boys went up to Wayne and gave them a 6-1 game, as they had already cinched the championship in the morning.

New Mail Delivery Service Improving

POSTMASTER HAWS AND STAFF
WORKING HARD FOR INCREASED EFFICIENCY—HOW EVERY-BODY CAN HELP.

The new system of house-to-house delivery of mail inaugurated last week by the Post Office is being rapidly improved with each passing day. It was to be expected that there would be some delays in the delivery of mail the first few days. These delays have been due to several facts.

First of all, our letter carriers, while experienced post office men, are new in Narberth, and it has necessarily taken them some time to get acquainted with our borough, its streets and the names of the close to 4,000 people who receive their mail through our Narberth Post Office. In the second place, a great deal of the mail entering the Narberth Post Office was addressed to post office boxes; in every such instance, the letters, magazines, parcels, etc., had to be gone over and the box numbers changed to street addresses. Then, too, the bad numbering of many of our houses has caused delay in the delivery of mail. For instance, in some blocks the carriers found two houses having the same numbers, while in other blocks, for some mysterious reason, identical numbering was started at both ends of the block and worked towards the middle, causing more confusion.

However, all these problems are being rapidly solved through the energetic work of Postmaster Haws and his staff, along with the co-operation of the borough officials. During the past week the Lower Merion Township Commissioners sent a representative to Postmaster Haws and working under the direction of the Postmaster, the representative inaugurated a complete numbering system for houses in the Brookhurst section north of Montgomery Pike, the residents of which receive their mail through the Narberth Post Office.

Too much praise cannot be given Carriers Hall, Officer and Englehart, who during the first week of the new service worked ten and eleven hours every day, and at that it was necessary for them to have extra help during the first three or four days. The new service was inaugurated at the beginning of the month, which also marked the beginning of a new quarter, which in turn brought the usual heavy mailing of bills, statements, etc.

How You Can Help.

There are several ways that you—and that means every one of us—can help improve and facilitate the delivery service. First, make it a point, every time you write a personal or business letter, to call to the attention of the person to whom you are writing the fact that we now have house-to-house delivery in Narberth, and that all letters mailed to you should be addressed to your house number and not to your old post office box.

Next, make a list of all the magazines and newspapers to which you subscribe and write a short letter, or a postcard will do, addressed to the Subscription Manager, Circulation Department, of the periodical, asking him to correct your mailing address. Here is a simple form to follow in writing such letters:

Subscription Manager,
Circulation Department,
The Ladies' Home Journal,
Independence Square,
Philadelphia, Penna.

Dear Sir:

Will you kindly change my address on your subscription list from P. O. Box as per the enclosed address label, to number Essex avenue. My address stencil should then read:

John Jones,
1514 Essex Avenue,
Narberth, Pennsylvania.

Yours very truly,

If you only write a postcard to the magazines you cannot, of course, send the address label, but it is much better to write a letter and enclose the address label which you have clipped from the wrapper. Do not think that this is making a big fuss over a very small matter, for while you see a big magazine only from your own viewpoint, the magazine has thousands and sometimes millions of subscribers. Very complicated systems are necessary to handle the addressing of copies, and if you follow the form suggested above, we can assure you that the change in your address will be made promptly and there will be no danger of your missing copies. It will take a week or two to make the change in your address in the mailing list of the bigger magazines because of the advance addressing and mailing system that is necessary in handling a magazine of big circulation.

GOOD LUCK, BOY SCOUTS.

Pennsylvania has a creditable showing in the Boy Scout delegation which left for England yesterday. Eight lads from this State, including two who live near Philadelphia, will represent the Keystone element of this now universally recognized organization.

The objective of the trip is London, in whose environs will be staged an international contest in which scouts from fifty-six countries will vie with one another in demonstrating their cleverness and training in all sorts of scoutcraft. Three hundred delegates were sent by this country.

After weathering a period of criticism, largely made by persons who imperfectly understood the aims and ideals of the movement, the Boy Scouts have at last won the general acknowledgment due them for their good work. While athletics and competitive intelligence are two features of the organization's creed, the latter also insists on clean living and good manners; and it is probably the conjunction of these excellent requirements that has made the scouts so reliable and respected.

"To promote good citizenship in the rising generation," was the way their founder, Lieutenant General Baden-Powell, phrased it, when he formed the society in 1908. Since that time the scouts have become highly popular world-citizens. The kindly wishes of all Americans will follow the delegation abroad, conscious that its members are worthy to represent a great country's young manhood.—N. A., 7/7/20.

LOWER MERION HAS 23,649 POPULATION IN CENSUS RETURNS.

THREE MAIN LINE TOWNSHIPS AND BOROUGH HAVE TOTAL OF 42,165.

GUESSERS WRONG.

Official figures, published on Wednesday, give Lower Merion township a population of 23,649 in the 1920 census. The figure is about 3,500 short of conservative guesses.

Census figures for Radnor township were issued late last week. They gave the district a population of 8,181.

Combined with the 1920 census returns for Narberth borough, of 3,704, and for Haverford township 6,631, this gives the entire district commonly regarded as the typical Main Line suburban section a total official population of 42,165.

Complete returns for Delaware county appeared at the same time as the Haverford and Radnor township figures, crediting the county with a total population of 173,084, against 117,906 in 1910, and 94,762 in 1900. A goodly proportion of Delaware county's population resides in Chester city—58,030.

Figures available for Lower Merion township do not, unfortunately, give the population by election districts. Many residents are anxious to learn the local populations of places like Ardmore, Bryn Mawr and Bala-Cynwyd.

Lower Merion's new population record represents a one-third increase in 10 years, the exact percentage being 33.8, as the population of 1910 was 17,671, and in 1900, 13,271. The ten-year period from 1900 to 1910 also showed a one-third increase, the rate being 33.2.

Radnor's increase in the past ten years was not as great as in the decade before it. From 1900, when the figure was 5,474, the population increased to 7,094 (a rate of 29.6) in 1910, and the latest jump is 15.3 per cent. of the 1910 figure.

Newtown township, regarded as a rural part of the Main Line, has 837 population, an increase from 739 in 1910, and 738 in 1900.

Lower Merion's figure of 23,649 is puzzling to many. Some guesses of what it would be were over 30,000, and most estimates assumed that the tally would reach about 27,000.

Some of this guessing was based on the fact that the Ardmore Post Office, from delivery lists and similar bases of compilation, estimates that it serves a little more than 12,000 names for delivery purposes, which means all persons to whom mail is regularly delivered, and, of course, does not include small children, nor is it absolutely complete in other respects. The list, however, naturally contains some duplications among business houses, for instance, and also includes a small section of Ardmore lying in Haverford township, Delaware county.

An effort is being made to have the Lower Merion figure worked out by election districts, but this will not be entirely conclusive. The town of Ardmore is not a municipal unit, but an overgrown village around the railway station. The political sub-divisions bearing the name of Ardmore are the North Ardmore precinct, the South Ardmore precinct and the West Ardmore precinct. West Ardmore is clearly within the village. North Ardmore precinct extends along Lancaster avenue to City Line, Overbrook, edging Merion election division, Narberth borough and the General Wayne district in one direction, Gladwyne and Haverford in another, and the two Ardmore precincts in still another. The election district, therefore, takes in Wynnewood and the series of large estates down to Overbrook. For instance, residents of St. Charles Seminary, at Overbrook, vote in the North Ardmore division.

South Ardmore is similarly vague. One boundary is Cricket avenue, Ardmore. Another is the south side of Lancaster avenue from Cricket avenue, Ardmore, to City Line, Overbrook. A third line is City Line from Lancaster avenue, Overbrook, to County Line road, and the fourth boundary is County Line from Overbrook west to Cricket avenue, Ardmore. Here again a thin section of Overbrook and Wynnewood are included, as well as an area of farms and estates and a portion of Beechwood, along Haverford road.

The post office carrier delivery, roughly, extends a short distance below Church road on Lancaster avenue toward the east and a short distance beyond Wyoming avenue on the west. It ends a little way beyond Woodside road, on West Montgomery avenue, and at Church road corner on east Montgomery avenue.

The limit for delivery on Mill Creek road is at the intersection of Glenn road and on the south side the delivery service extends over into Ardmore Park, which is in Delaware county.

This district, taken by and large, is the real "town of Ardmore" in every but a municipal sense, and it will be seen from the post office figures that its residents number about 12,000. It is likely that the annual number of Lower Merion residents who could also be called residents of Ardmore will be around 10,000, making the community the largest centralized population factor—and the largest municipal problem—in Lower Merion township.

INJURED IN ODD ACCIDENT.

Three men on a Coatesville express motor truck were badly scalded last Tuesday when the radiator water sprayed them when the cap blew off under pressure of the boiling water. The accident occurred on Lancaster avenue at Wynnewood. Ralph Hudson, of Parkesburg, the driver, who was most seriously injured; Earl Benner, of Coatesville, and Charles T. Moore, of 241 West Diamond street, Philadelphia, were taken to the Bryn Mawr Hospital by a passing motorist.

New Mail Delivery

Service Improving

If you are going away on a vacation, ask the carrier who serves you for one of the card forms on which you can write your vacation address for forwarding mail and then return the card to the carrier.

Are You One of Them?

Postmaster Haws reports that there are still some houses in the Borough that have given up their post office boxes, but have not yet provided house boxes. If you are one of these, it is important that you install a letter box or have a slit cut in your door, if you want to receive mail at your home. Otherwise it will be held at the post office for general delivery. The letter carriers are under instructions from the Postmaster to report all such houses.

And finally, remember to purchase stamps at the local Post Office. It is important that the sales at our Narberth Post Office be maintained, and in view of the fact that the new delivery service is saving us a total of $1,700 a year on box rents, it is up to all of us to co-operate with the local office in the matter of purchasing stamps, post cards and stamped envelopes. If you are going away on a vacation, don't forget that the Post Office has books of one- and two-cent stamps. Buy your supply of vacation stamps before you go away.

is neither safe nor profitable because money carried in one's pockets or kept at home is often lost, and often unwisely spent.

Money deposited in a checking account here is safe; an easily accessible record of expenditures revealing ways to economize is provided; and many avenues of profits are opened to depositors.

LADIES' AUXILIARY PRESENTS FLAG TO AMERICAN LEGION OF NARBERTH.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Harold D. Speakman Post, No. 356, of the American Legion, of Narberth, presented the boys of the Post with their Legion Flag at the Minstrel Show on June 25th. Mrs. Elizabeth W. Howes, commanding officer, made the presentation. The Ladies' Auxiliary has decided not to hold any more meetings during the summer, but anyone wishing to join the Auxiliary may do so through any one of the following members of the Membership Committee: Mrs. Clarence Faries, Mrs. A. H. Mueller, Mrs. S. B. Dickie, Mrs. J. T. Howenstein and Mrs. Robert Ross.

METHODIST CHOIR TO HAVE ANNUAL OUTING.

The Methodist Church Chorus and their friends, numbering about 40, were driven in automobiles to Valley Forge last Thursday afternoon and tendered a dinner at Washington Inn. An important discovery was made by the choir that their congenial pastor had an extensive, elongated capacity and weakness for waffles, which the competent kitchen of the Inn endeavored to satisfy. The evening was enjoyed to such an extent that it was decided then and there to have an annual affair to wind up the season. The chorus is now forming for the fall, being limited to about 20 voices. Applications to join the chorus have been sent in to Prof. Nice in such a number as to make it necessary to have a standing list for some parts, and giving Prof. Nice a chance to pick out the very best voices with which to form the nucleus of an extra fine chorus. The chorus is not being confined to members of the Methodist Church, but is open to anyone not affiliated closely with any other church or choir of the town. The chorus will sing only in the evenings, and a double quartet take charge of the singing in the morning services next fall.

HOLIDAY HOUSE OPENS FOR THE SUMMER.

The Holiday House opened for the summer on June 25th. As usual, the Evangel Circle of Narberth served the lunch. One hundred and fifty-five people were served. Mr. John G. Walton, of Atlantic City, formerly of Narberth, donated thirty-two quarts of ice cream for the lunch.

The first group of twenty-five children and three mothers came out on June 28th, and, after enjoying a vacation of twelve days, this group returned to their homes Saturday, July 10th. Another group is expected Monday, and in this way a number of deserving mothers and children will get a vacation.

Any donations to the Holiday House will be gratefully received and appreciated either in the way of money, fruits, vegetables, or whatever you wish to give.

The following article appeared in the Public Ledger under date of July 8, 1920:

NARBERTH WOMAN SAVES RELIEF WORKERS AT HADJIN

Turkish Commander, Whom Miss Mary Super Nursed Back to Life, in Gratitude Allows All to Escape Thirty Minutes Before Artillery Wrecks Town.

Constantinople, July 21 (delayed).—The gratitude of Enver Bey, a Nationalist machine gun commander, who had been nursed back to life by Miss Mary Super, of Narberth, Pa., a Red Cross nurse detailed with the American Commission for Relief in the Near East, made possible the escape of the relief workers from the American board mission buildings in Hadjin thirty minutes before the Nationalists turned their artillery on the structures and destroyed them on June 13.

That fact became known today with the arrival here of Miss Super, Miss Katharine Bredemus, of South Bend, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Eby, of Disbury, Alberta, from the Hadjin district. The bare news of their escape had preceded them by a few days.

Miss Edith Cold, of Cleveland, escaped with the other relief workers, but remained in Caesarea in the hope of being able to give further aid to the Armenian orphans who had been under the workers' care at Hadjin, while Miss Alice Clark, another of the workers from Hadjin, is at Sansum recovering from the exhaustion of the long trip on mule-back through the mountains of Anatolia.

Use Street Addresses and Buy Your Stamps in Narberth

Our citizens are urged to remember that now that we have house-to-house delivery of mail, street addresses should be used in addressing all mail for delivery in Narberth. The only exceptions to this rule will be those cases where a few individuals or business concerns have retained their post office boxes.

By making sure that you have the right street addresses you will assist in prompt sorting and delivering of mail.

Another thing—do not forget to buy your postage stamps and postal cards at our local post office. We do not want to let the receipts of our local once slump. A little thoughtfulness on the part of our residents in this connection will keep the receipts at our local post office up to normal.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the names of every professional tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 2 lines; 5 cent for each additional line

There were some pretty long waits for the Doctor in the horse-and-buggy days

MAKE it easier to get around and you make healthier and happier communities. No one any longer questions the worth of the automobile — or begrudges any legitimate expense connected with it.

But millions of car owners are rebelling at the idea that running an automobile has got to mean waste.

II

Every now and then you hear a neighbor complain that "he doesn't seem to have much luck with tires."

Send him to us.

The minute a man begins to question the service his tires are giving him, he's ready to listen to reason.

Our business is built on the principle that the only way to get better tire service is to get better tires to start with.

That's why we have taken the representation for U. S. Tires.

III

U. S. Tires have a reputation for quality.

Built up through years of creating better tires. Such as the straight side automobile tire, the pneumatic truck tire

It is not by chance that U. S. Tires are made by the oldest and largest rubber concern in the world.

We are proud to represent U. S. Tires in this community.
